ST ARNAUD PRIMARY AWARDED AN ANZAC DAY ACHIEVEMENT

Federal Member for Mallee Andrew Broad has congratulated St Arnaud Primary School for finishing runner-up in the Primary School Category in the 2017 Anzac Day Schools' Awards.

The Anzac Day School Awards is a nationwide schools competition that encourages the study of Australia's wartime history and the commemoration of Australian service men and women on Anzac Day.

Mr Broad said the local school are set to receive prize money as well as a certificate and plaque for their achievement.

"St Arnaud Primary School showed great initiative and creativity in the way they commemorated Anzac Day. This has really helped the students understand more deeply the significance of our wartime history and the sacrifices of those who served," he said.

"It is extremely important that students across the nation have a good understanding of Australia's wartime history and it's great to see St Arnaud Primary doing just that."
